CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate

WASHINGTON March [illegible]

At the expiration of the morning hour the senate resumed consideration of the [illegible] Railroad sinking fund bill and Merrimon spoke in [illegible] of the bill reported by the committee [illegible]

House

The house adopted by a vote [illegible] 111 the resolution making the [illegible] bill special order for Thursday April [illegible] and from day to day thereafter until disposed of Republicans voted almost exclusively in the negative as did also the [illegible] sylvania members

The house resumed discussion of the Massachusetts contested election case of Dean against Field

Senate

WASHINGTON March 27

The vice president appointed Davis Saunders and Conover committee on part of the senate to meet the remains of Hon John F Leonard upon arrival at New York and to accompany them to the place of interment

Kernan introduced a bill granting pensions to Indians who were in the service of the United States in the war of 1812 as scouts guides or warriors referred

McMillan reported house bill for the allowance of certain claims reported by accounting officers of the treasury department placed on calendar

At the expiration of the morning hour the senate resumed consideration of the Pacific Railroad sinking fund bill and Hill of Georgia spoke in opposition to many features of the bill reported by the judiciary committee but said he did not wish to be understood as favoring the passage of the bill reported by the committee on railroads He thought this was the most remarkable bill ever introduced in a legislative body and he had no doubt the supreme court would confirm his views should it be passed It was a bill filed to foreclose a mortgage before the mortgage became due It was a common law action to secure the payment of debt before the debt became due It was a bill which found no precedent in the course of the law or history of legislation Precedents were to be disregarded and powers unknown to the British parliament in its most omnipotent day were to be exercised

Hill said the bill reported by the railroad committee proposed to establish a sinking fund by the consent of the companies while that of the judiciary committee proposed to establish a sinking fund at the will of the creditors Such an exercise of power on the part of congress was not only unauthorized by the constitution but would be actually subversive of the great purposes for which the government was instituted He quoted at some length from the Pacific railroad acts of 1862 and 1864 and argued that no power legislative, executive or judicial could, under any pretense whatever change them except upon allegation and proof of fraud in their procurement

Beck said the government would not get its money unless some means should be taken to compel the roads to pay

Hill said congress could not protect the rights of the government by denying the stockholders a single right they were entitled to

Thurman said Hill had indulged in some very sweeping denunciations of the bill of the judiciary committee so sweeping that if true and well founded the first duty of the senate would be to disband its judiciary committee If the assertions were true the members of the judiciary committee were either idiots or villains. Thurman warmly defended the committee and spoke of the standing of the members thereof as jurists They ought to know the law and if they had reported a bill in plain antagonism to the constitution it was the bounden duty of the senate to dismiss that committee and appoint another and better in its stead He further defended the committee and gave notice that he would ask the senate to come to a vote on the bill next Wednesday

Hill said he was not aware that he had made the slightest charge against the judiciary committee or any member of it He believed the committee had made a mistake, and reported a bill to exercise powers which congress did not possess He had respect for the senator from Ohio (Thurman) and for every member of the judiciary committee but it was his honest conviction that the committee had made a mistake and was bound to follow his conviction or had the judiciary committee power not only to violate contracts but to compel him to follow their views

Bailey took the floor to speak on the sinking fund bill to morrow and it was then laid over

Windom called up the house bill making appropriations for consular service of the government for the year ending June 30 1879, and explained its provisions

The amendments reported by the committee on appropriations were agreed to as follows Restoring the salaries of U S ministers to Great Britain, France, Germany and Russia to $17,500 each, those to Spain, Austria Italy Brazil Mexico, Japan and China to $12 000 each and those to Chili and Peru to $10 000 each the minister resident and consul general to Hayti to $7 500 Liberia to $4 000 consuls general at London, Paris Havana and Rio de Janeiro to $6 000 each Melbourne $4 500 Berlin $1 000 authorized by the house committee on appropriations reported to strike out of the house bill the clause requiring consuls to make to the secretary of state a quarterly statement of the exports from and imports to different places to which they may be accredited market price of various articles etc agreed to

Sargent submitted the following as an amendment in lieu of the part stricken out

"Every consular officer shall furnish the secretary of the treasury or to such officer of customs as he may direct as often as may be required the prices current of all articles of merchandise usually exported to the United States from the port or place in which he is stationed and authority is hereby vested in the secretary of the treasury to require compliance with this provision, but it shall not have the effect to impair the provision of section 1 712 of the revised statutes

Sargent, in explanation, said the transmission of this information to the secretary of the treasury would be of great benefit He thought it would be well if the whole consular service was placed under the secretary of the treasury He read a letter from the secretary of the treasury urging the transmission of the information mentioned

Windom opposed the amendment

Allison objected to the amendment

After some further discussion the amendment of Sargent was adopted by a rising vote of 2[illegible] ayes 19 nays

The bill was further amended so as to provide for a minister resident to the Argentine Republic at a salary of $7,500 and a charge d'affaires at Paraguay and Uruguay at $5 000 each instead of a minister resident to the Argentine Republic who should ask to be accredited to Paraguay and Uruguay

The committee on appropriations submitted an amendment to strike out of the house bill the appropriation of $20 000 for the diplomatic service to be expended in the discretion of the president

Edmunds hoped the clause would not be stricken out, and said it must happen in the course of diplomatic intercourse of the United States that exigencies would arise where it would be of great benefit to the government that the president would have money to apply He thought the president could be trusted with this money as contingent funds

Anthony opposed striking out the clause and said it was such a small sum it would be best to permit it to remain in the bill as occasions were constantly arising where it could be used to advantage.

Windom said an appropriation like this was inserted in the bill two years ago for general service when a number of consulates were abolished Now these consulates had been reinstated and he saw no necessity for the appropriation He had no fear as to trusting the president with the money but he did not wish to thrust it upon him as it had not been asked for

The motion to strike out the clause was agreed to

Spencer submitted an amendment providing that consular and diplomatic appointments shall be so arranged as to be equally distributed between the states and territories of the United States and District of Columbia tabled

The bill having been considered in committee of the whole was reported to the senate The amendments made in the committee were concurred in and the bill read a third time and passed

The house then resumed consideration of the Massachusetts contested election case of Dean against Field and after debate a vote was taken upon the minority resolution declaring Field entitled to the seat. Yeas 1[illegible]9 nays 119

This was received with great applause on the Democratic side

Butler voted with the Democrats in the negative and the following Democrats voted with the Republicans in the affirmative Hartridge Herbert Jones of Alabama Potter Rea Stenger Walsh Williams of Delaware and Cutler Without coming to a vote on the majority resolution the house adjourned

Is it Stabbing a Corpse, You Are?

[Washington Special St Louis Globe Democrat]

A [illegible] New England Republican [illegible] with [illegible] Senator [illegible] Conkling [illegible] the president [illegible] day to [illegible] after the [illegible] of all [illegible] the New England [illegible] said he thought it would be better if [illegible] the North and the South [illegible] I have not [illegible] I found the Republican party already [illegible] to substitute it

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

General Opinion Concerning the Congress

LONDON March 27—A Berlin dispatch says the powers have declined a suggestion made by Russia that the congress be held without England [illegible] Gortschakoff [illegible] leaving [illegible] meeting of the three emperors [illegible] Russia is understood to have informed [illegible] her willingness to make further concessions to Austria and some concessions also to Roumania being prompted it is thought by growing apprehensions of differences with England Germany has under the circumstances abandoned for the present all idea of issuing invitations for the congress

Success not Probable

A Vienna correspondent telegraphs Whether Gen Ignatieff comes here to interpret treaty or negotiate an understanding the opinion here is not in favor of his success

England Assured,

A London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says Lord Derby has received assurances from Count Schouvaloff during the past few hours Schouvaloff kept Russia's negative in his pocket until he received authority to give these assurances

The Congress a Failure.

VIENNA March 27—To day's newspapers consider the congress has failed, and that Austria must now look to the protection of her own interests

Horse Boats Ordered

LONDON, March 27—The government has distributed among boat builders an order for additional horse boats to be delivered immediately

The Congress or a War.

The Times says To surrender the hope of the congress is to abandon the eastern question to the drifts and currents of separate jealousies and excitements and to throw away the only means of submitting it to quiet consideration To sacrifice substantial principles even for the sake of avoiding such danger would be the object of all the governments that of Russia included to promote the meeting of the congress by all the means which do not obviously and necessarily involve such sacrifice Utterances from Berlin on the eastern question this morning, the first semi-official expression of opinion since the hitch in the congress project are entirely different from assertions hitherto made by special correspondents

The Berlin Post which prints nothing political without purpose and which is one of Prince Bismarck's organs, says

The failure of the congress would probably result in Russia and England remaining at peace but arming for war This prolonged armament England can infinitely better afford than Russia, who would be reduced to exhaustion were she obliged to maintain her armies on a war footing some years As Russia cannot attack England while England is perfecting her position to bide her time the czar will probably be driven to extend his conquests in the interval the better to be prepared for a collision when it does occur but in such case Austria and Greece would join England to protect their own interests As to Germany she will never fight for Russian or any other foreign interests Russia had therefore better restrain her ambition

War again Inevitable.

CHICAGO March 27—The Times London special says that information is received from various European capitals to the effect that gloomy views as to the outcome of the present situation are generally prevalent, and that war [illegible] not necessarily near is inevitable in th[illegible] d

Russo-Turkish Relations.

LONDON March 26—Grand Duke Nicholas visited the sultan to day and was received with great cordiality Diplomatic relations between Russia and Turkey have been renewed It is reported Ignatieff will offer Austria, Bosnia, Herzegovina and a portion of Albania and Macedonia

Two hundred thousand Russian landwehr were called out Monday

Ignatieff's Object

LONDON March 27—The Times correspondent at Vienna says Gen Ignatieff's purposes are unknown, but probably as a person most familiar with the treaty of St Stefano they are to explain its scope and show how it can be modified in the interest of Austria but Austria is considered capable of judging matters for itself Gen Ignatieff is not more likely to succeed on this than on two former missions

Russia's Unpromising Answer.

Russia's answer to England's late question merely says the government adheres to its former view This does not sound very promising but it is thought here the reply will not close all interchange of opinion

Osman Reappointed.

LONDON March 27—A Constantinople dispatch says Osman Pasha has been appointed commander in chief

Bismarck Fails in Mediating.

BERLIN March 27—The Tagblatt says Prince Bismarck's latest attempt at mediation between England and Russia has thus far been unsuccessful His proposal was that Russia should indicate before hand the points in the treaty which she agrees should be discussed at the congress Russia has not yet replied to this proposal

Russo-Roumanian Disagreements.

LONDON March 27—Bucharest papers attack the stipulation in the treaty of San Stefano that Russia shall maintain communication through Roumania two years They say that the Russo Roumanian convention terminates with the end of the war and that the stipulation would perpetuate the blockade of traffic on Roumanian roads and railways and injure the trade of the country The Roumanian government has refused the Russian application to build a hospital and telegraph station at Galatz

The Bessarabian Question.

BUCHAREST, March 27—The Bessarabian question stands thus Russia has agreed that it should be brought before the congress and decided by it declaring herself ready to keep Dobrudscha if the powers pronounce against exchange

Ignatieff and Kaiser William,

VIENNA March 27—Gen Ignatieff was in conference with the emperor this afternoon The Political Correspondence says General Ignatieff's mission is proof that the key of the situation as regards the eventuality is in Vienna and the Austrian government must allow England to entertain no doubt as to whether she can reckon on Austria

Dining with Turkey

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 27—Grand Duke Nicholas will probably remain here a week He dined to day with the sultan

A Little Panic Almost,

The Post in a stock article says At the beginning of the early call this morning at the big board no little trepidation was created by the exhibition of the following bogus news, conveyed in a telegram purporting to have been received from Sacramento "The Tuttle bill has passed the senate and is now in the hands of the governor who will sign it What effect will it have on the market?" It was generally known that the bill had been sent to the committee on corporations yesterday and that the senate had held a session last evening Therefore this news, so industriously circulated at the board generated a raid from the bears, who were waiting for the passage of the bill, and broke down prices several points Had not the brokers of Flood & O Brien stood in and relieved the market of all offerings, a serious panic would have ensued

Antiquity of Nursery Rhymes.

[From the World of Wonders]

Many of these productions have a very curious history if it could only be traced Some of them probably owe their origin to names distinguished in our literature as Oliver Goldsmith for instance is believed by his earlier days to have written such compositions Dr [illegible] Rimbault gives us the following particulars as to some well known favorites Sing a Song of Sixpence is as old as the sixteenth century Three Blind Mice is found in a music book dated 1609 The Frog and the Mouse was licensed in 1580 Three Children Sliding on the Ice dates from 1633 London Bridge is Broken Down is of unfathomed antiquity Girls and Boys Come Out to Play is certainly as old as the reign of Charles II as is also Lucy Locket Lost Her Pocket to the tune of which the American song of "Yankee Doodle" was written Pussy Cat, Pussy Cat where have you been? is of the age of Queen Bess Little Jack Horner is older than the seventeenth century The Old Woman Tossed in a Blanket is of the reign of James II to which monarch it is supposed to allude

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

The following is from the Springfield (Mass) Republican of March 8th If the reader will compare the argument of the Union Pacific management as herein set forth with that of the railroad committee which has already been presented in part in our columns, it will be seen that the latter has closely followed the former Mitchell's committee therefore takes from the railroad company its own argument in its behalf and presents it as a basis for an adjustment with the government Here are the Republican's statements

The Union Pacific stockholders held their annual meeting at Boston Wednesday re elected the old managers and resolved that the government was abusing them shamefully The resolutions submitted by Isaac Thatcher of Boston, and unanimously adopted, profess that the stockholders are anxious to anticipate the debt to the government upon any basis not a burden upon its present or a menace to its future prosperity —which means to the 8 per cent dividends paid on stock which was mostly distributed for about $10 a share The stockholders are tender of the public and will not consent to any action on the part of the government which should compel an advance in rates They anticipate also a gradual falling off of the government freighting and competition sooner or later from other transcontinental roads, and, finally instruct the directors not to assent to any arrangement which contemplates a contribution of more than a million dollars all told, annually to the sinking fund If terms cannot be made with the government they authorize the immediate establishment of such a sinking fund out of the 8 per cent securities of the company which would of course accumulate more rapidly than if invested in government bonds. The gross earnings for the year were $12,478,000, the net earnings $7 199 000 a falling off of about $100,000 in each owing to the absence of centennial passenger travel and the partial failure of the crops in California The dividends paid amounted to $2,080 000 We fear that the instructions of the stockholders will not be compatible with the bill which Senator Thurman has reported to the senate from the judiciary committee of that body

Tea Culture in America.

[Washington Dispatch, March 19, to N Y Tribune.]

A gentleman connected with a prominent tea importing house in Baltimore, and who is an expert in all matters pertaining to the culture and curing of tea, came to Washington last week by appointment with the commissioner of agriculture, to inspect 100 000 tea plants growing in the propagating houses of the agricultural department. This gentleman has traveled in China and Japan, in connection with the business of this firm In the latter country he remained one season as superintendent of the plantations and curing and packing establishments owned by his house He is therefore probably as well qualified as any American to pronounce upon the practicability of cultivating tea in this country He expresses the utmost confidence in the success of the commissioner's plans and is surprised that tea culture did not long ago become a profitable branch of American industry. The gentleman further says that, in his opinion, two-thirds of the labor expended in China is useless, and that with one-tenth of the ingenuity displayed in the invention of the cotton-gin machinery can be devised here which will supersede every hand manipulation except that of picking, and that we can produce results more uniform and of better quality than can be otherwise arrived at He recommends to the commissioner that in future documents on the subject of tea culture, Oriental accounts be disregarded, and that a plain statement of the principles which govern the preparation of tea be substituted Processes would then suggest themselves, he thinks, to intelligent experimentalists that would remove the veil of mystery which has heretofore clouded the whole question and result in the successful production of American tea produced on American principles

[Washington Correspondence of the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser]

Senator Edmunds says there are so many presidential candidates on the committee on judiciary that business is very much behind He says that on the day when the committee meets, Conkling will come in first and find a slim attendance He will sit a little while impatiently and say

"Well, I don't suppose there will be a quorum this morning, and I have other matters to attend to If Davis and Thurman would drop their presidential aspirations and attend to committee business we could do something"

And he will go out Then Thurman will come and asks

"Where's Conkling?"

When told that he has been in and left to look after other matters he will say

"Where's Davis?"

"Davis hasn't come"

"Well" Thurman will say "Conkling and Davis have got the presidency on the brain and of course we can't expect anything of them Call me when you get a quorum"

And he will go out Then Davis will come in and say

"Well Conkling and Thurman are absent again Those two men are so busy working up their presidential campaigns that they neglect their senatorial duties"

And so it goes, every week, Edmunds says

An Elephant's Funeral.

The oldest of the white elephants of Siam which was born in 1770, died in its temple at Bangkok in November last. Every one knows that this famous white elephant before whom the whole people bow the knee is the emblem of the kingdom of Siam Each white elephant possesses its palace, a vessel of gold and harness resplendent with jewels Several mandarins are attached to its service and feed it with cakes and sugar cane The king of Siam is the only one before whom it bends the knee and a similar salutation is rendered it by the monarch The deceased idol has been accorded a magnificent funeral A hundred Buddhist priests officiated at the ceremony The three surviving white elephants, preceded by trumpets and followed by an immense concord of people accompanied the funeral car to the bank of the Menam where the king and his noble lords received the mortal remains, which were transported to the other bank for burial A procession of 30 vessels figured at that ceremony All the floating houses, ranged in double file on the Menam, to the number of over 60 000, were adorned with flags of all colors and symbolical attributes

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 28 1878

TEXAS PACIFIC

A bare majority of the house committee not long since reported favorably a bill which proposes to guarantee the bonds of the Texas Pacific railroad to the amount of $38 500 000 at five per cent interest for fifty years Having failed in an application for a guarantee of $60,000 000, the company now makes an effort to secure this smaller amount Both the majority and minority reports on the new bill are very exhaustive The latter is of especial interest because it formulates the views of those who oppose subsidies and presents the arguments that lie at bottom of the opposition to all efforts now making to secure railway aid On reporting this bill but seven members of the committee favored it while six were opposed a circumstance which proves that the opposition to every measure of this character will be most difficult to overcome The relation of the minority shows that the Texas Pacific company has now no claims upon the government even for the land originally granted The company was incorporated March 3 1871 with a supplementary act approved May 2 1872 relieving it of some of the original conditions But it was required to build 100 miles a year on the direct line of the road, and to complete the entire distance of 1 574 miles between Marshall, Texas, and San Diego, Cal within ten years from the date of the franchise On the direct line only 183 miles have been constructed. But the state of Texas has made to the company a large grant of land and to secure this 300 miles of branch lines have been built. It is alleged by the minority of the committee that even the reduced subsidy now asked for is greater than necessary to build the road They assert that the road can be built and equipped for $20,000 a mile, which would make a subsidy of only $28,000,000 necessary for construction of the remaining 1,400 miles of main line, so that the subsidy asked would leave an excess of $10,000,000 to be "taken from the principal for the benefit of those who manipulate the bonds from the start and who do not propose to risk a dollar of their own in the enterprise" At the same time it is argued that it would cost the government less to build the road and give it to the Texas Pacific company outright, than to guarantee interest for fifty years on five per cent bonds to build it. By inference it is admitted that the argument would not extend to opposition to renewal of land grants like that of the Northern Pacific, for the dissenting members of the committee only say they are "opposed to all pecuniary subsidies and guarantees by the government, in whatever form, at this time however desirable their construction

AN IRREPRESSIBLE CONFLICT

Senator Barnum of Connecticut, chairman of the Democratic national committee, has been delivering to the Boston Herald his views on financial matters as affecting the prospects of his party. Like all leading Democrats of the east, he is a pronounced opponent of everything that looks like inflation. He fought the silver bill from first to last, as did Eaton, his Democratic colleague, and treats with contempt demagogical measures which he says are devised under pre- [illegible] into the pockets of the people. It is manifest that men of his class would prefer that their party should be beaten yet again rather than that it should succeed on a basis of inflation and communism. But the chairman of the National Democratic committee believes that it will still be possible for the sound money element to control the organization as heretofore He says in the most emphatic way that the party cannot be put in a false position He holds that there is plenty of money in the country, and that inflation is the wildest of heresies. Men of principle on the Democratic side, he maintains, are as much chagrined and alarmed by the recent outcroppings of communistic spirit in congress and among the people as any Republican can be. No doubt this is quite as he puts it But it hardly betokens that future harmony in his party of which he professes to be so confident. There is in fact on this subject an irrepressible conflict between the Democrats of the east and west. How differences so radical can be accommodated it is difficult to see It is only fair to say that Republicans are by no means entirely in harmony with each other on the same questions. But their dissensions are not so broad nor deep. There may be some rearrangement of political forces, growing out of these and similar differences, before the next presidential election That now seems one of the probable things

"MOVE CAUTIOUSLY THERE"

The present mission of the Salem Record seems to be to reconcile the differences between the Democratic and Greenback parties in this state. It says they have a common creed and the inquiry then is, why should there be two organizations? The Record referring to resolutions recently adopted by the Democrats at Salem and other places, claims that Democracy has taken the ground occupied by the Greenback and Labor party on the currency and bond questions, and since every principle contended for by the latter has been accepted by the Democracy, there is no use for a separate organization This position is to a certain extent correct There would seem to be no reason why all men who hold these loose, vague and unsound ideas on financial affairs should not associate in the same party But when the Democratic party shall be put distinctively on this absurd platform then its sound money element will quit it It will lose far more in these members than it will gain from the reinforcement it receives in those who believe that money need have no value in itself, but may be made out of leather, paper or any other cheap material without necessity of redemption If the Democratic party looks for any success it would better not drive its "goldites" and "bondholders" out of the organization It will have need of them It is not specially our province to look after this matter, and yet we may take the liberty of advising those who want to organize the Democratic party on an inflation basis to consider the other side of the question A little caution here might prevent future disappointment.

FORBEARANCE SORELY TRIED

There promises soon to be some overt act on the part of Kearney and his associates in San Francisco which will bring down on the heads of the pestilent gang the mighty wrath of a long forbearing people Just let some act of incendiarism or other outrage like that threatened upon the house of Whittier, Fuller & Co occur, and such a purification of the social and moral atmosphere as has not been seen since the times of the vigilance committee will be the consequence Lamp posts will bear fruit as never before It is intolerable that these insolent menaces should continue. One of these days they will be pushed beyond the point of forbearance and then the whole business will be settled very quick It is not a labor movement but a commotion produced by ruffians who are trying to lead the worst class of the city to incendiarism and rapine One of these days San Francisco will be provoked beyond endurance and these fellows will find out what it is to fall into the hands of an outraged people who love order well enough to enforce and maintain it Kearney's acts already ought to send him to the penitentiary As a champion of labor he would serve all the legitimate purposes of the cause far better by being kept at work during the next ten years for the state than in any other

Philadelphians are already making arrangements for the reception of Gen Grant, who is expected to return to that city in the fall In a quiet way a number of gentlemen are laying the ground work for an ovation such as no American ever received and it is hinted that all this is with a view of placing him squarely before the people as a candidate for a third presidential term But it will hardly work And yet there is no telling for people in masses even more than as individuals, do things frequently which they never expected they would do

The silver dollar was all very well in its way but the Chicago Times notes what has also been observed in Oregon namely that the greenbacker distrusts it as a sop and calls loudly for the repeal of the resumption act The members of the senate committee on finance, who despite the presence of Voorhees postpone consideration of the bill repealing this act are denounced roundly as traitors, and, as if that weren't bad enough as bugs—gold bugs

The Lewiston Teller savagely criticises the authorities at Washington because they hold and protect the Indians who committed the murders on Camas Prairie instead of returning them to Idaho to be dealt with for their crime It intimates that some of the murderers have returned to the agency and are secreted and protected not only by their Indian friends but by agents of the governmen

The St. Paul Pioneer Press notes how an attempt was made "to fool the people of Oregon with a story sent from Washington through the associated press to the effect that the Northern Pacific had surrendered to the demands of Mitchell" Nobody at the east except those who fabricated the dispatch seems to have heard a word of the facts it purported to give

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

SPRING GOODS!

IN ADDRESSING THE PUBLIC ON THIS OCcasion we do so with more confidence than at any time since our advent into business Our career in business has been singularly successful having attained a degree of enviable notoriety for straightforward dealing selling goods at a slight margin on importers prices

Our STOCK for the Spring Trade is one of the best selected and the most comprehensive ever before offered to the people of Oregon—bought on the most advantageous terms and embracing every line in the trade

In disposing of this immense Stock our conduct shall be guided by the same golden rule as heretofore—Honest dealing and the Smallest Living Profits

Our patrons embrace a large number of the Northwestern population and in sending out our

we hope to see or hear from all our old friends and as many new ones as wish to avail themselves of this opportunity of purchasing goods cheaper than ever before offered in the Metropolis of the Northwest

Our facilities this year have been peculiarly favorable for purchasing having through our friends of the Bay City had the chance of picking up special lines suitable for this market at prices for which manufacturers could not begin to produce them This in a great measure is caused by the almost general stagnation of business in the leading markets of the United States and more directly affecting the Pacific States from the hard times they have had and are having in San Francisco The consequence is the merchants there must unload their heavy stocks and in many cases at a great sacrifice

Fully realizing the situation our MR KERRON launched out and purchased an IMMENSE STOCK!

More than in ordinary times he would have been justified in buying but the low prices he obtained them at will enable us to spread them over this State and the Territories at such a reduction on old time prices as will convince the most skeptical that we mean business and business we Must and Will Do!

It would be useless attempting to give a list of Prices Space does not warrant it But we shall forward samples to any of our country friends who send for them

The public in dealing with us can place implicit faith in the fact that the lowest prices are asked All Goods are marked in plain figures from which there can be no deviation thus placing the inexperienced on equal terms with the experienced in the purchase of goods

Our country friends would do well to reap the advantage of an early inspection of our Warehouse it is incumbent on us to make room We are crowded and we must move goods off to make way for fresh contracts to arrive by every Steamer during all April

We have advices of a shipment of Goods from Glasgow direct now fully due and daily expected

CITY.

AT THE CITY JAIL —Last evening our reporter called round at the city jail on his lonely perambulations through deserted streets in the vain hope of scaring up a stray item or two He found Capt Allen seated in the office very serenely perusing a paper That officer informed the reporter that times were distressingly dull in police court affairs Only two arrests had been made up to midnight—a couple of maudlin drunks had been gathered in—and a slim prospect for another haul during the remainder of the night Capt Allen stated that hash was being dealt out daily to 10 boarders—seven men and three Celestial females of cloudy repute. He remarked if that information was of any value to the great reading public, the reporter was welcome to it Heaving a deep sigh our reporter walked from the presence of the officer, out beneath the starry canopy and wended his solitary way back to his editorial den, to sadly cogitate on the uncertainty of human affairs Verily these be perilous times among the average quill drivers When the police court fails to furnish intellectual pabulum then the reporter is cast entirely adrift.

HOUSE BURGLARIZED —Between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock yesterday the residence of Mr Bories located on the east side of Fifth street, between Alder and Morrison, was burglarized Mr Bories is not in the city, and his wife was engaged at work in the kitchen The front door was shut, and the thief hoisted one of the windows opening into the front room He went to the bed which is occupied by Mrs Bories and rolling back the mattress, took a gold watch and chain that were lying there. After taking the watch the thief quietly slipped out and made his escape. Mrs. Bories having occasion to go into the front portion of the house, was surprised to find the bed disturbed On looking for her watch she was greater surprised to find it missing. Nothing else was missed It was certainly a very bold piece of work for a burglar to enter a house in broad daylight and take all the chances of getting caught The thief must have been acquainted with the premises and known just where the lady kept her watch No clue.

ELECTIONS — From the Archangel, a little paper published in connection with St Michael's College, the following is obtained At a meeting recently held for the purpose of reorganizing the debating society, the following were elected officers for the ensuing term: president, C Hogan vice president, I. Schmitt, secretary I Hogan The members of the Philharmonic Society have elected the following officers president, C Hogan; vice president, I Schmitt secretary, I. Hogan. The following have been elected officers of the Library Association for the ensuing year president C Hogan vice president, D. Malarkey secretary F Wascher, librarian, I Schmitt assistant librarian, D Nyhan, treasurer J Manning

SOLDIERS SAILORS AND MARINES.—A call for a meeting has been circulated among the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, and numerously signed, the object of such meeting being to organize, or rather reorganize, a post in this city, among those who have served in the late rebellion. All discharged soldiers sailors and marines who signed the call for a meeting will please assemble at Good Templar hall this (Thursday) evening March 28th at 7 30 o'clock.

VERY ILL —From the Advocate it is learned that "Mr Moore, whose residence is near Mr E O Corson's about two miles east of Stark street ferry landing, is lying sick near unto death, without any hopes of recovery. He has been in feeble health for a long time; went to California some time ago, hoping to obtain relief, but all to no good; lately returned to spend his remnant hours in the care of his family who have the sympathy of many friends"

WILL RESUME —By reference to advertisement, printed to day, it will be seen that studies will be resumed at Bishop Scott Grammar School on the first of April. We are glad to note that there is no intention to let this useful school go down There is strong hope that it will be able ere long to secure a new building and begin a new career of lasting prosperity

SCHOOL MEETING —Next Monday evening the annual school meeting in East Portland will be held at the Central school building in that city, for the purpose of electing a school clerk and director. Mr. Claude Thayer has filled the position of clerk for the past two years very efficiently and satisfactorily. Mr. John Kenworthy is the retiring director.

ANNIVERSARY MEETING —The Spiritualists and Liberalists of Portland and vicinity will celebrate the 30th anniversary of the dawn of modern Spiritualism at Jacob Miller's hotel, Milwaukie on Monday afternoon and evening, April 1st There will be appropriate literary exercises, a social dance and supper. A general good time is expected

DEDICATION —The new chapel of the North Portland M P Mission Sunday school will be dedicated next Sunday March 31st, at 3.30 P. M Friends of the school and particularly those living in the vicinity are cordially invited to be present Interesting exercises may be expected.

SHOOTING MATCH —Next Saturday some of the young men of East Portland propose to have a shooting match in Holladay's addition to that city The prize offered is a rifle worth $25. Ten entries at $2 50 each, will be made, and five shots each will be allowed.

MAILS TO CLOSE —Mails for San Francisco via steamer Geo W Elder will close at 9 o'clock P M to day Registered mail will close at 4 o'clock this afternoon Bear this in mind

CITY.

AT THE CITY JAIL.—Last evening our reporter called round at the city jail on his lonely perambulations through deserted streets in the vain hope of scaring up a stray item or two He found Capt. Allen seated in the office very serenely perusing a paper That officer informed the reporter that the affairs were distressingly dull in police court affairs Only two arrests had been made up to mid night—a couple of maudlin drunks had been gathered in—and a slim prospect for another haul during the remainder of the night Capt. Allen stated that hash was being dealt out daily to 10 boarders—seven men and three Celestial females of cloudy repute He remarked if that information was of any value to the great reading public the reporter was welcome to it. Heaving a deep sigh our reporter walked from the presence of the officer out beneath the starry canopy and wended his solitary way back to his editorial den, to sadly cogitate on the uncertainty of human affairs Verily these be perilous times among the average quill drivers When the police court fails to furnish intellectual pabulum, then the reporter is cast entirely adrift.

HOUSE BURGLARIZED.—Between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock yesterday the residence of Mr Bories, located on the east side of Fifth street, between Alder and Morrison was burglarized. Mr Bories is not in the city and his wife was engaged at work in the kitchen The front door was shut, and the thief hoisted one of the windows opening into the front room He went to the bed which is occupied by Mrs. Bories, and rolling back the mattress, took a gold watch and chain that were lying there. After taking the watch the thief quietly slipped out and made his escape. Mrs Bories having occasion to go into the front portion of the house, was surprised to find the bed disturbed. On looking for her watch she was greater surprised to find it missing Nothing else was missed. It was certainly a very bold piece of work for a burglar to enter a house in broad daylight and take all the chances of getting caught The thief must have been acquainted with the premises and known just where the lady kept her watch No clue

NOTES FROM BETHEL.

BETHEL March 25 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

As Bethel is rather a quiet burg and seldom troubles you with notes I thought a few items might prove interesting to some of your readers

As we are ahead in our county nomination is politics are all the rage Mr O G Shurtleff a resident of Bethel is the Republican nominee for sheriff and a more wise nomination could not have been made Mr S was a soldier during the rebellion and served his country in many battles the proof of which he bears by a scar upon his forehead caused by a rebel Minnie ball The party need have no fears of defeat when such men as O G Shurtleff are placed upon the ticket.

The school at this place is conducted by Prof Ladru Royal formerly of your city Great credit is due the professor for the manner in which he has conducted his classes An entertainment given on the eve of the 22d inst. was a grand success and attests the proficiency of both students and teachers

Miss Ollie Chamberlin of Salem has been conducting a class in vocal and instrumental music Miss C has a rare voice and thoroughly understands her calling On last Sunday the Sunday school at this place presented to her as organist a neat little purse containing $20 It was presented through Superintendent Royal in a nice little speech to which Miss Chamberlain responded in a very pleasing manner kindly thanking her many friends Miss Ollie returns to Salem to take charge of a class VAN

THE OPIUM DEAL

We have [illegible] the usual result— [illegible] There was a little low grade [illegible] nearly two [illegible] and feet below the [illegible] appearance [illegible] rich [illegible] have been [illegible] the result [illegible] tions were [illegible] [illegible] with the usual accompanying reports [illegible] [illegible] during the three months and more that [illegible] preparations [illegible] an extra [illegible] ring to cross it The [illegible] for his disinterested [illegible] [illegible] stars go into the public While everybody waits patiently for the bonanza excitement which is to enthuse the market somebody sells so much of the [illegible] stock that the price declines 50 per cent in a day or two and there is an [illegible] panic with its usual crop of broken fortunes and helpless victims Brokers are caught along with their credulous customers and the faith of all in mining investments is shaken The seed of crime and pauperism is sown to bear fruit in due season

Is this building up the mining industry? Can anything be worse [illegible] [illegible] there will be nobody with money who will be foolish enough to invest in [illegible] mines [illegible] stock boards. The 50 000 stockholders in this state who are [illegible] mines of Nevada will be assessed for [illegible] house and [illegible] while two or three men will rule the state with a rod of iron— unless checked in the mean time by the fury of an enraged populace more dangerous far than legislative enactment There will be an end to this kind of stealing until some of [illegible] detected in it and sent to the penitentiary

The Ku Klux Stories

(From the Springfield Mass Republican)

That there was a large element of horror in the kuklux stories which were so frequently coming from the southern states under carpet bag rule and that a considerable proportion of the scoundrels which [illegible] deliberately instigated by the Republican leaders has long been evident [illegible] Ex Governor Moses of South Carolina [illegible] [illegible] state and tells the story with [illegible] little reason to doubt it [illegible] truth Everything possible was done to inflame the whites against their old slaves the most effective measure being the arming and constant drilling of negroes by the wholesale as militia while the whites were forbidden to carry arms A band of twenty five roughs was imported from New York to help on the work of provoking the whites to desperate deeds and when the outrages [illegible] began to grind slowly [illegible] would be distributed from Columbia to incite the Democrats to fresh offenses Moses charges Major Merrill of the United States army with helping in this dirty work and then lobbying a bill through the legislature for his pay contrary to the regulation that no army officer shall receive money from state authorities Undoubtedly there were genuine and unprovoked outrages enough in South Carolina and her sister states but it is equally certain that many of the stories which have fired the northern heart were either pure fictions or owed their origin to such malignity as Moses describes

Legal tenders in Portland [illegible] buying [illegible] selling

There is a moderate activity in the [illegible] for loans on real estate and personal security [illegible] is generally met on the terms frequently heretofore announced The supply of money in the hands of bankers and capitalists is of course generally judged by the readiness and ease with which loans are obtained, and by this standard the market at present is by no means short in the matter of funds

No spring for five years past [illegible] business on a better basis than the present and though the volume of transactions has yet [illegible] been large the prospect [illegible] ing an active season All the [illegible] wholesale houses are well supplied with large and varied stocks of seasonable goods suited to the wants of the people of this part of the coast and buyers from the interior find less occasion than ever before to go to San Francisco to lay in their spring supplies the difference to cash buyers between prices here and there will we apprehend be found insufficient to offset the expense of a trip to that city

A fact slightly affecting the price of commodities exportable to Europe is the price of exchange on London at New York which according to late advices is now higher than it has been for a long time In January the best rate for 60 day bank bills was $4 83 and the lowest was $4 81½ In February the maximum was $4 84 and the minimum $4 82. On the 15th March the rate was advanced to $4 86 against $4 84½ on the 1st Thus far the advance in rates has drawn out very little gold and up to latest mail advices the specie movement was more than usually favorable to the United States We have now reached a point where a slight increase will turn the current in favor of London A large amount of United States bonds has been received at New York and covered by bills on London These are now getting scarce and the chances are that gold will soon have to go to pay for bonds if they continue to come in the same ratio as they have since the 1st January The indications however, point to a check in the return movement it being found impossible to make any better investment of the money in Europe Upwards of $1 000 000 was withdrawn from the Bank of England on the 15th and yet the rate of discount is 2 per cent.

The London Times of a late date says The most important business in the foreign stock market to day has been the selling of U S bonds by the public It is not so much that the selling has been of large amount as that it has been selling by actual holders of stock and selling, too upon a market where there are few buyers except upon American account. There is danger therefore lest alarm may be generated by the fall which is thus caused in prices and bonds get pressed on the dealers faster than they care to have them Holders of stock almost always become more disposed to sell as prices go down and at present very little pressure would cause a sharp fall There is at present no cause for alarm and, consequently any rush to sell is much to be deprecated

Domestic Produce.

But little space is required to describe the condition of this department of trade to day Wheat is not offered in any considerable or even significant quantity, and if it were, we doubt if buyers would use any exertions to obtain it at anything over $1 70@1 72½ it being now regarded as actually worth in this market about $1 75 on board Parties who hold any of the cereal are strengthened in their indisposition to sell by the warlike tenor of the news from Europe Flour is steady at former quotations, with quite liberal receipts for the season. Oats are coming forward less freely and command 45 cents per bushel for all good merchantable lots. Mill feed, hay etc are in fair demand and ample supply at the quotations given Potatoes are quoted firm at 90 cents but dealers here who are willing to pay so much require immediate delivery, as there are some well grounded fears that a decline will occur in the very near future Offers to sell at 90 cents deliverable within ten days, were refused to-day Onions are quotably higher, say $1 25@1 50 per 100 lbs. Eggs are weak at 15 cents for shipping but lots that will bear a warrant of freshness command 18 cents per dozen to supply the demand for home consumption
